

Current and future trends in the management of gastro-intestinal cancers

Saturday 16th November, 2013 9:00am – 4:30pm

Venue:

Discipline of Radiation Therapy, School of Medicine
Trinity Centre for Health Science,
James' Hospital,
Dublin 8.

Course Organiser: Claire Poole
poolec@tcd.ie

Registration: All Attendees must register online via “Book Events” on the IIRRT homepage (www.iirt.ie). Closing date for registration: midnight on Thursday 14th November 2013. Registration on the day is not possible & payment will not be accepted on the day.

Timetable

9:00 - 9:30 Registration

Morning Session (Part 1):

9:30 - 9:35 Welcome and introduction

9:35 -10:30 Keynote Speaker: Professor Karin Haustermans
Current practice in ART in rectal cancer

10:30 - 11:30 Nutritional interventions to reduce acute toxicity in pelvic radiotherapy - Linda Wedlake

11:30 - 11:45 Coffee

Morning Session (Part 2)

11:45 - 12:15 Clinical trials in lower GI malignancies
Angela Clayton-Lea

12:15 - 1:15 Radiation Oncology in upper GI malignancies
Dr. Brian O'Neill

1:15 – 1:45 Development of NCCP National Guidelines for the Management of Upper GI Cancer - Evelyn O'Shea

1:45 – 2:30 Lunch

Afternoon Session:

2:30 - 3:30 Selecting the optimum imaging modalities for the diagnosis and staging of GI malignancies
Dr. Lorna Hanlon

3:30 – 4:30 The role of obesity in the aetiology of GI malignancies
Dr. Claire Donohoe

