

Recovery – CHECKLIST

operate at recovery facilities restore potentially contaminated facilities secure emergency procurement and funding make claims against existing insurance policies obtain additional people to support the recovery effort select options for restoring and returning to business as usual migrate operations to recovery facilities communicate with relevant interested parties at appropriate frequencies normalise operations at the restored facilities conduct a post-recovery review conduct due diligence on audit and corporate governance requirements